CCAP receives numerous article submissions throughout the year. CCAP can not publish every request received, but each will be given equal consideration. The CCAP Editorial Board meets on a regular basis and selects article topics based on member needs and prevalent issues. If the article is chosen, CCAP staff will contact you following the review, but due to the volume of requests, CCAP is unable to contact individuals submitting topics not being used. Topics not selected for a particular article will be kept on file for one year from the time delivered to CCAP and will be reviewed at each editorial meeting. CCAP reserves the right to alter topic content or add additional article content to a suggested piece. CCAP cannot compensate authors for articles submitted for publication. By submitting an article, you are granting copyright permission to publish the article in the Pennsylvania County News.

Author's may request an electronic manuscript or reproduction of their article, as it appears in Pennsylvania County News, following publication. As part of its copyright agreement for Pennsylvania County News, the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania (CCAP) grants the authors the right to place the final version of his/her manuscript on the author's Web site, subject to CCAP's standards, or in a public digital repository, providing credit is given to Pennsylvania County News. When posted on property owned by the author (i.e. a Web site), the author should accompany the article with a tagline reading "this article is provided courtesy of Pennsylvania County News, a publication of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania". The tagline should also state the issue date of the publication where the article was originally printed. Please note that the article is a reprint with CCAP's permission, but in no way constitutes an endorsement of the products or services offered by the vendor. The CCAP logo shall not be reproduced or included in the online manuscript in any way.

- I have read the above policy/procedures.
- I would like to request an electronic manuscript/reproduction of my article, should it be published. Please send to (e-mail address): _____
