

Get Connected to Pennsylvania County Leaders...

Associate Membership Program

Access...

The County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania (CCAP) represents all of Pennsylvania's 67 counties and the county commissioners, council members, county executives, administrators, chief clerks and solicitors who operate them. Associate membership in CCAP is your connection.

Associate membership with CCAP gets your foot in the door with county decision makers across Pennsylvania.

Associate members receive a complimentary directory listing every county commissioner, council member, county executive, administrator, chief clerk and solicitor in Pennsylvania. It is available to you on paper or in an electronic format for your convenience.

Associate members also get special discounts on conference and exhibitor registration fees and full access to every CCAP conference. Associate members can mingle informally or fully participate in the workshop discussions.

Active associate members of CCAP keep county leaders informed about the products and services available to them, and county officials know where to look when they are ready to make a purchase. CCAP lists every associate member in its interactive Courthouse Connection, an online directory of companies who do business with counties.

Opportunity...

Associate members also receive discounts on advertising in Pennsylvania County News, CCAP's premiere publication, putting the name of your company in front of 1,500 plus readers.

And, the CCAP Annual Conference features an outstanding trade show. Associate members receive a discount on booth registration fees.

Information...

CCAP Associate Members receive complimentary subscriptions to Pennsylvania County News, the Legislative Bulletin, and the Update. These publications help associate members stay on top of what is going on in counties.

Advertise!

The Pennsylvania County News magazine is the premiere publication of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania. The News serves as a mouthpiece for county and local government issues and provides education and information about counties to its 1,500 plus readers.

County leaders have come to trust the Pennsylvania County News for the most up-to-date information about issues and ideas. Advertising in the magazine puts the name of companies who do, or want to do, business with counties directly in front of those county decision makers.

Pennsylvania County News is the only magazine for and about Pennsylvania's county government leaders.

Pennsylvania County News puts a spotlight on the issues and challenges county leaders are facing right now. County leaders turn to the News for solutions.

Get Your Name on the List!

CCAP lists every associate member in its interactive Courthouse Connection, an online directory of companies who do business with counties. This "members only" directory is a great resource for county decision makers. Every associate member is listed by company name with contact information.

Be a Conference Sponsor!

CCAP hosts several Conferences and special events each year. In becoming a Conference sponsor you can get your company logo or the name of your firm in front of county officials throughout the Conference - registration, general sessions, refreshment breaks, receptions, in the program, on the Conference mobile app and more.

CCAP offers the following sponsorship levels: blue ribbon ($7,500), red ribbon ($5,000), white ribbon ($2,000) and patron Conference sponsors ($1,000) at each event. Each sponsorship offers a different level of exposure to the Conference attendees with higher levels offering more. Options include a company logo on signs throughout the Conference, company logos displayed on the "big screen" before each general session or group event, an ad in the program, listings on the Conference mobile app and other special recognition.

Join as a Technology Vendor Partner!

Does your company specialize in high tech products and services? CCAP's Technology Vendor Partnership Program exists to engage and connect industry leading technology vendors with Pennsylvania county government. The program is designed to deliver opportunities for technology vendors to share, present and interact with county government officials on cybersecurity, current technology trends and initiatives, and to provide products, services, and cost-saving programs and solutions for technological support, advancement, and betterment of all 67 counties. All opportunities offered are to help you connect with county IT Directors and CIO's in Pennsylvania.
